MARSHAL ILYN DESKOEY, AND HER FAMILY
FOUNDATION ESTABLISH TWO ENDOWMENTS

What is an endowment?

An endowment serves as a permanent named tribute for the donor or one who is honored. A restricted endowment may only be used for the purpose that is directed by the donor. Endowed funds are awarded according to a spending policy endorsed by the board of trustees. Named endowed scholarships begin with gifts of at least $50,000.

MARTHA GUDELSKY AND HER FAMILY
FOUNDATION ESTABLISH TWO ENDOWMENTS

The Homer and Martha Gudelsky Family Foundation created two endowments to attract and retain the most talented professors and to provide scholarships for promising students.

Martha Gudelsky

The Homer Gudelsky Endowed Professorship in Business established the first-ever endowed professorship in the College of Business and Management.

Ralph Norcio, senior associate dean, professor of finance and accounting in Lynn's College of Business and Management was awarded The Homer Gudelsky Endowed Professorship.

The Martha Gudelsky Memorial Endowed Scholarship helps students who exhibit leadership potential but need financial assistance to afford an education at Lynn.

Energy Mabrurste '15, from Zimbabwe, is the first recipient. He is pursuing a bachelor's degree in the Eugene M. and Christine E. Lynn College of International Communication.

"I was brought up where disabled people are a curse, burden and bad luck to the community. I have faced numerous challenges in the past. My goal is to become a human rights activist and advocate against the abuse of people living with disabilities back in Africa."

THE HERBERT AND HOLLI
ROCKELEW SCHOLARSHIP

Holli Rockwell Trubinsky established a planned gift to create The Herbert and Holli Rockwell Endowed Scholarship to honor her late husband. By funding the scholarship throughout her lifetime, Holli enjoys seeing students benefit from it each year. Upon her passing, the unfunded amount will be left in her will.

Anthony Ducoste '14 (Mass.) is the first recipient of this scholarship. He is a criminal justice major and an active member of the Law and Justice Club and the Black Student Union, and his goal is to be a lawyer for the FBI.

Kevin M. Ross is installed as Lynn's fifth president and launches an ambitious, 15-year strategic plan, Lynn 2020.

Martha Gudelsky establishes Lynn's first-ever endowed professorship and an endowed scholarship. (See above.)

Harold and Patricia Toppel create an endowed scholarship for the Conservatory of Music. (See above.)

Seven years of philanthropy at Lynn:
A Timeline

LYNNSIGHT
Stephen F. Snyder, a longtime member and vice chair of Lynn's board of trustees, established the Snyder Scholar through The Chester Foundation, whose primary focus is education. His gift created the university's first endowed scholarship recognizing a rising senior who has made significant contributions to the university through leadership and community engagement. It is granted in the spring of the student's junior year and directed toward tuition for the recipient's senior year.

Andrew Lippi '13 was the first student named a Snyder Scholar. He is a founding member of the Knights of the Roundtable, a group of students that replaces the traditional student government. Anne Marie Van Casteren '14 (Fla.) is this year's recipient.

THE HAROLD AND PATRICIA TOPPEL ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FOR THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC was established to provide annual assistance to deserving student-musicians. Wyoming native Wynton Grant '14 is the current recipient of the scholarship. He is pursuing a Bachelor of Music degree in performance, and his ultimate goal is to become a professor of music.

Other students who have benefitted from this scholarship are Anna Tsukervanik '14 (Uzbekistan), Jesse Yukimura '13, '15 (Wash.), Jose Menor '10 (Spain), Xinou Wei '11 (China), Philip Brindise '15 (Fla.), Jael Auguste '15 (Fla.) and Nelson Navarrete '13 (Fla.).

GLORIA AND BRYAN BOURGEOS ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP IN HOSPITALITY is established in memory of Gloria Bourgeois and in honor of her son, Bryan '91. Ryan Layton '12, '13 (Md.) received this scholarship as part of his undergraduate degree. At Lynn, he gained experience in the industry through various jobs and internships.

Other students who have received this scholarship are Brian Glynn '13 (Mass.), Laura Gilli '14 (R.I.) and Adam Stern '11 (Conn.).

Ryan Layton

THE RUNSDORF ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP is created to provide for students in Lynn's College of International Communication who excel in both academics and service to the college. Recipients of this scholarship are Christina Beatty '13 (N.Y.), Jennifer Stone '11 (Ohio), Angela Barioli '10, '11 (Fla.), Michael Slavin '12 (Fla.), Lindsay Erickson '09 (Fla.) and Sydney Putnam '14 (Conn.).

Wynton Grant

HAHN-BLOCK FAMILY FOUNDATION ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP is established in honor of their daughter, Rebecca, and is awarded to a student in financial need. Lindsey Preston '15 (Fla.) is the first recipient of the scholarship.

ALDO AND SANDRA PAPONE ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP in Hospitality is awarded annually to students with financial need, in good academic standing and who have a passion for the hospitality industry.

Students who have benefited from this scholarship are Enelius Davis '12 (Fla.), Jennifer Morano '13, '14 (Mass.) and Joseph Bercaw '14 (N.J.).

Heidi Desmond '11 (Iowa)
Gaelle Rousseau '13 (Fla.)
Alexandra Martin '16 (Md.)

The Perpers have touched every aspect of student life at Lynn including the Harold and Mary Perper Teleconference Center, The Perper Study Lounge, Perper Mail Room and the following priorities:

THE PERPER PLAZA
Because of their love of students, it was important to Mary and Harold Perper that there be a place for students to gather with friends and faculty.

THE MARY AND HAROLD PERPER TENNIS COMPLEX
Since the complex’s dedication on Jan. 29, 2010, the men’s tennis team has won four Sunshine State Conference titles and the women have won nine. Lynn also has hosted the NCAA Tournament five times since the new facility has been built.

KEITH C. AND ELAINE JOHNSON WOLD PERFORMING ARTS CENTER
The Perpers’ contribution to the Wold Performing Arts Center resulted in 752 comfortable, state-of-the-art seats enjoyed by the campus and the community.

THE PERPER GRANDSTANDS will provide seating in the future Bobby Campbell Stadium, currently under construction.

2007
• The Legacy Society is founded to recognize donors who have included the university in their will, trust or estate planning.

2008
• Laurence Rumsdorf establishes an endowed scholarship.

• The late afternoon provides dramatic lighting to the groundbreaking of the Keith C. and Elaine Johnson Wold Performing Arts Center.
FROM TRAGEDY COMES STRENGTH

To honor the four students and two professors who lost their lives in an earthquake while on the "Journey of Hope to Haiti" in January 2010, the university commemorated the Remembrance Plaza. A special place for solace and reflection, it recognizes the collective spirit of service and compassion for humanity.

The Class of 2012 donated a solitary bench on the Remembrance Plaza to memorialize fellow classmates lost in the Haiti earthquake.

This class gift holds special significance as the four students would have graduated in May 2012.

CONTINUING THE LEGACY

To carry on a legacy of caring, scholarships and awards were created to provide Lynn students with the resources to participate in service projects at the local, national and global levels.

Stephanie Crispinelli Endowed Memorial Scholarship was established by Stephanie's family to honor her love of education and service. This scholarship is awarded to students who emulate Stephanie's enthusiasm for helping others.

Students who have received this scholarship are Lindsay Doran '12 (N.J.), Alannah Wagstaff '12 (Mass.), Sarina Peddy '12 (N.Y.), Maria Benitez '13 (Ecuador) and Alyssa Jacobson '14 (Fla.).

The Christine Gianacaci Journey of Hope Award funds two students' travel costs for January Term humanitarian mission trips. Christine's passion for helping children led her to participate in the Journey of Hope trips to Jamaica and Haiti.

In honor of their daughter, the Gianacacis' foundation provides these funds to students actively involved in service organizations and humanitarian classes.

Students whose service trips were funded by this scholarship include Alexandra Harriman '13 (Mass.), Ryan Smith '12 (Colo.), Gordon Maxwell '14 (Mich.) and Antoni Piasecki '14 (Pa.).

Briggs Family Haitian Scholarship assists a Haitian student whose education has been interrupted by the earthquake.

Doug Briggs, Gwendoline Darguste, Peggy Briggs

Gwendoline Darguste '14, who was one of the top students in her university in Haiti, receives this scholarship each year until she graduates from Lynn in 2014.

2009

- Trustee John Langan '81 presents a challenge to fellow alumni: For every new alumni donor to The Leadership Society, he will donate $1,000. Seven new alumni meet the challenge and step forward as alumni leaders.

- Alumni website launches, providing online giving.

- Lynn Conservatory performs the first community outreach concert in Mizner Park with an exclusive VIP reception for Leadership Society donors.

- An anonymous donor creates The Heart Award for Lynn's Institute for Achievement and Learning. (See page 4.)

- Attendance at Alumni Weekend jumps from 113 attendees in 2007 to 434 in 2008.

AN INSIGHT INTO PHILANTHROPY AT LYNN 5
Since its dedication on March 18, 2010, the Keith C. and Elaine Johnson Wold Performing Arts Center has hosted more than 100,000 people for theatrical and conservatory performances, lectures by noted thought leaders, community dialogues, panel discussions, student drama productions, special exhibitions, concerts by Billy Joel and Dashboard Confessional, as well as Lynn's Transitions Conference, which attracts nearly 700 educators, consultants and students to campus each year.

2012 Presidential Debate

In 2012, the Wold Performing Arts Center was the site of Lynn's moment in the national spotlight when it hosted the final presidential debate between then-Governor Romney and President Obama.

Conservatory performances

"The quality of our playing, the quality of everything we do has now taken another step forward. That's what art does for art … and this building is a work of art."

Jon Robertson
Dean, Conservatory of Music

2010

- Perpet Tennis Complex is dedicated as the new home to Lynn's seven-time national championship tennis program. (See page 4.)
- A ribbon-cutting ceremony opens the region's newest state-of-the-art venue, the Keith C. and Elaine Johnson Wold Performing Arts Center. (See above.)
- Christine Glanacaci Journey of Hope Award funds students' travel costs for humanitarian trips. (See page 5.)
- Briggs Family Haitian Scholarship is created to assist a Haitian. (See page 5.)
- Stephanie Crispinelli Endowed Memorial Scholarship is established for students' service trips. (See page 5.)
Theatre performances

"There are sounds coming from every corner of this place. Through generous gifts and community support for the arts, we are delighted to bring star-studded theatrical performances to South Florida."

Jan McArt
Director of Theatre Arts Development

Student productions

"The Wold Center has changed our perspective on education, both for faculty members in the way we teach, and for students in the way they learn and care about learning."

Adam Simpson
Assistant Professor, College of International Communication

Receptions

The Alumni Holiday Reception is only one of the great social events held in the Wold throughout the year.

Guest lecture series

The Dively Lecture Series brought David McCullough (2011) and Jim Lehrer (2012) to stage.

2011
- Aldo and Sandra Papone establish the Papone Endowed Scholarship in Hospitality. (See page 3.)
- Holli Rockwell Trubinsky creates an endowed scholarship with a planned gift. (See page 2.)
- Snyder Scholar is established as the first endowed scholarship to recognize student leadership. (See page 3.)

2012
- Lynn dedicates a renovated and upgraded front entrance. (See page 8.)
- Lynn University begins its 50th anniversary year.

The BENJAMIN OLEWINE III PRESERVE provides an outdoor laboratory for the imperiled ecosystem.

Under CONSTRUCTION...

BOBBY CAMPBELL STADIUM

The BOBBY CAMPBELL STADIUM will be the new home for men's and women's soccer and for men's lacrosse.

Construction will be completed by spring 2014.

2012

- The President's Alumni Advisory Council (PAAC), a hand-selected group of alumni leaders, is established to provide President Ross with solid feedback and ideas for the university from the alumni perspective.

- The Remembrance Plaza is dedicated. (See page 5.)

- The Class of 2013 donates a plaque, located by the Wold Performing Arts Center, to commemorate the dual, historic events of the final presidential debate on Oct. 22 and the 50th anniversary year of Lynn University.

- The Gingerbread Holiday Concert celebrates 10 years of bringing families together for a musical celebration of the holidays while providing scholarship assistance to the talented student-musicians in Lynn's conservatory. To date, this event has raised more than $600,000 in scholarship support.
INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS CENTER

The INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS CENTER is the new home of the College of Business and Management.

Construction will be completed by fall 2014.

SNYDER SANCTUARY

The SNYDER SANCTUARY will be a place for contemplation and personal meditation. It will also be a place to learn about spiritual traditions of the world.

2013

- Ground breaks for Bobby Campbell Stadium, the future home for one of the country’s most successful soccer programs with eight national championships. (See above.)

- Lynn’s 50th Anniversary Weekend is kicked off with the groundbreaking for the new International Business Center. (See above.)

ALUMNI LEADERS
Regional alumni club meetings are held in the New York, Boston and D.C. areas in addition to annual Lynn on the Road receptions.

Allison Halpin ’01 leads the New York club by hosting event planning meetings and, along with husband Jim, hosting the annual Lynn on the Road event in Manhattan. The Halpins are donors in The Leadership Society.

Others who have stepped forward as alumni leaders: Jose Duarte ’95, ’98 hosts alumni receptions in his award-winning Boston restaurant, Taranta. Matt ’99 and Betsy ’02 Jaeger and Greg Sullivan ’89 have hosted D.C. area alumni at the Congressional Club and more recently at Florida House.

Thanks to the generosity of benefactors, the university has witnessed steady growth in scholarships, professorships and campus development as illustrated in the charts below.

... and we’re not done yet.

The vision continues with more crucial priorities to be met.

- UNIVERSITY CENTER

  will be the true centerpiece on campus. Designed with open spaces and unique lighting, it will serve as a venue for campus community events and will include eateries, campus bookstore, student organizations meeting areas, a relaxing lounge and social gathering places.

- BASEBALL STADIUM

  will be home to the 2009 National Championship Fighting Knights. It will be the spotlight stadium of the overall athletic complex, due to its prominent stadium wall displayed to all visitors through the campus' new Potomac Road entrance. This lighted stadium will boast covered seats, locker rooms, coaches' offices and press box. Evening games will draw students and community members to games at more advantageous times. This new stadium also will allow Lynn to host post-season tournaments.

- SOFTBALL STADIUM

  will host the women’s softball team and will be the most centrally located stadium in the athletic complex. This lighted stadium will include covered seats, dugouts, press box, coaches' offices and locker rooms. It will also allow Lynn softball to host tournaments and post-season play, which has not been possible in the past.

- RESIDENCE HALLS

  will be designed like apartments with several bedrooms adjacent to a living room and kitchen. The apartment village will build a stronger and livelier campus life by encouraging students to live on campus through all four years of college.

- ENDOWMENTS FOR SCHOLARSHIPS AND PROFESSORSHIPS

  will continue to be crucial to provide resources to attract and retain the most talented and dedicated professors and students.
