We are honored to be dedicating this 1991-1992 yearbook to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lynn. Through their love and commitment, the Lynns have helped the College of Boca Raton make the transition to a new status as Lynn University, an accredited institution with a new and exciting outlook. Now, our opportunities are limited only by our vision.

Eugene and Christine Lynn have already given us funds to build a beautiful new dormitory equipped with a state-of-the-art fitness center. There are plans to build more facilities, as needed, to create a first class academic environment.

So, with deepest gratitude, we, the students and yearbook staff at Lynn University, dedicate this yearbook to the Lynns in recognition of their caring support and continuous efforts in making our university the finest there is.
ANNOUNCING LYNN UNIVERSITY

In September 26, 1991, President Donald Ross announced a decision by the Board of Trustees to change the name of the College of Boca Raton to Lynn University. This change signified the transition of our school from a small, regional institution to a larger more comprehensive University. The university, named after the Lynn family, honors the contributions and educational commitment of Eugene and Christine Lynn.

The 1991-1992 academic year signifies the thirtieth anniversary of the founding of our school. During this year we saw the building and opening of the Lynn Residence Center, a state-of-the-art living and fitness center. Thanks to the generous commitment from Ronald and Kathleen Assaf, major renovations were made to the Assaf Academic Center including the refurbishing of classrooms and laboratories. An additional gift from the Count and Countess de Hoernle allowed for the renovation of our thirty-year-old dormitory. Students in the years to come will enjoy a 35,000 square-foot Health and Culture complex with a basketball court, handball courts, exercise room and offices. This, too, comes in the form of a generous gift from the Count and Countess.

Men’s Soccer 1991

The men’s soccer team of Lynn University had a phenomenal season in 1991. The players were led by a new coaching staff to capture the NAIA National Men’s Soccer Championship. It was unanimous after speaking with players Neathan Gibson, Lea Oxley and Neal Bland - the team was extremely disciplined and worked together well. All agreed that the coaching changes were a prominent factor. First year soccer coach for Lynn University, Shaun Pendleton, stated that he was very pleased with the season’s outcome. Pendleton felt that he coached an exceptional group that was very disciplined on and off the field. Pendleton and the team expect a repeat of this year’s accomplishments in 1992. As Neal Bland stated, “Lynn University has put Boca on the map!”

Women's Soccer 1991

The women's soccer team finished another chapter in the Lady Knights history with a record 15-4-0. Through hard work and determination the Lady Knights, during the 1991/92 season, earned the position of being ranked #1 in the nation. These ladies earned recognition and respect.

The young women began training during the summer. Their dedication showed when they came two weeks before school began and participated in three training sessions a day. "These girls give everything they've got and take pride in what they do for the program and it all begins when they step on the field," states coach Jim Blankenship. This year the women's team hosted the NAIA National Tournament and were looked at by their peers as contenders for the national title. Unfortunately, the Lady Knights lost in the second round. The team plans to bring the title home next year.

This year the team was very young. Consisting of eleven freshmen, the Lady Knights will lose one senior, Mickey Riegler. "As a freshman, I felt it was a challenge being a part of this competitive program. We are a young team and we have a lot ahead of us, but a lot to work with," stated Heather Otte. The Lady Knights are in spring training and are preparing for the next chapter of a successful season.

Hockey Team

Under the leadership of head coach Douglas Dudeck, the Lynn University hockey team has shown tremendous growth. Assistant coaches Michael Boden and John Parker have additionally supported this team during the September through March season.

Below: Douglas Dudeck and Michael Boden
Success in athletics has been the norm for Lynn University over the past few years and the 1992 Knights baseball program carries on the tradition. The Knights have enjoyed a great deal of success in the past eight years. The Lynn University baseball team has represented Florida in the District playoffs over the past five years. Several Knights have received All-District and All-American honors. Some graduates have signed professional baseball contracts. Players contributing a major role in the success of the Knights are pitchers Mark Ward, Deron Brown and Chris Applegate; infielders Doug Forrester, Tom Sutaris and Brian DeFrancisci; outfielders Brad Fairholm, Jeff Weigel and Steve Swartz; and catcher Carlos Hernandez. The Knights faced some of the toughest competition in Florida by playing against North Florida, St. Thomas, Florida Southern and Nova. They also faced northern powers Villanova, Eastern Connecticut and Slippery Rock. The 1992 Knights carried on the winning tradition set by past Lynn University teams and the 1992 team looks promising with many key players returning.
Men’s Tennis

Four years ago, the Lynn University’s men’s tennis started out with a spark. Now that program has escalated into what many in the tennis world view as a legitimate contender for the NAIA title. This year, for the first time in its history, the team was nationally ranked.

With incoming freshmen like “Stormin” Norman Hansen and Carl “The Truth” Rinman, the team proved to have some young guns. Anchored by senior Pat Sheehan, junior Arnold Wu and sophomore Thomas Grapin, the team was given an added dimension by newcomer Michael Feldbausch. Michael was the number one collegiately ranked player in the nation. With the additional emergence of John Lalonde the team was equipped for its best year ever. According to freshman Norman Hansen, “This team has the unity, desire and talent to bring us a national championship. Even though I am only in my first college season and I was really scared about fitting in at the beginning, some of the older players took me under their wings like a little brother and contributed positively toward my confidence.” This unity will no doubt be an asset to the team down the stretch and many are confident that this could be the season that the Lynn University men’s tennis team emerges as an NAIA powerhouse.

Women’s Tennis

Mike Perez is in his third season as head coach of the Knights men’s and women’s tennis program. He has enjoyed tremendous success during this short tenure at Lynn University. The women’s team won the District 25 championship in 1990 and finished second in the nation at the National tournament. Patrick Henning is the team’s assistant coach. Patrick is a Lynn University graduate currently enrolled in graduate courses working toward a degree in Business Administration.

The women’s team is currently ranked seventh in the country with three players receiving recognition in the NAIA top 50 poll. Ranked players include: senior Delphine Contoz, junior Cherise Garanito and freshman Victoria Gozzi. Claudia Lipitich from London starts as the number three player.

Both men’s and women’s teams come under the direction of Lynn Athletic Director, Paul Turner. Head Athletic Trainer is Todd McLaughlin with James Blankenship as Sports Information Director.

Danielle Dergy, Cherise Garanito, Victoria Gozzi, Delphine Contoz, Catherine Prouve, Claudia Lipitich, and Head Coach Mike Perez.
Men's Golf

The men's golf team has five tournaments during spring season. Their road trips will take them throughout the state representing Lynn University. The team practices at Woodfield Country Club, thanks to the kind generosity of manager Bob Fordham.

Women’s Golf

Coached by Dr. Gregg Cox, this year’s women’s golf team is expected to have a victorious season. This young team, with only one junior and one senior, spend practice time at the Carolina Golf Club in Coral Springs and at the Boca Golf and Tennis Club. The golf team plays two seasons, fall and spring.
Lynn University is proud to acknowledge the newest addition to our sports program. Our Jai-Alai team grew out of a few students' interest in this activity. Lynn University has now become the second of only two universities in the United States to have a Jai-Alai team. The program at Lynn began on September 14, 1991. Together, learning quickly to play this ancient Basque sport, the new Lynn captain, senior Kevin Beauchesne, and sophomore Daniel Jerusalmi have participated in four cup matches during the 1991/1992 school year. The Lynn team is coached by Ralph Seconomico who is very enthusiastic about future plans to build a two court outdoor amateur Jai-Alai facility on campus. The Lynn student body would be able to boast that they are the only N.C.I.A. school in America to have an amateur fronton for their use and for the conducting of national college championship tournaments every year.

Sharing the campus with parents is always a pleasure. This was accomplished in a special way by inviting parents, grandparents and special family members to a series of special events with the students, beginning Friday night with a reception after Honors Convocation. Saturday began with a breakfast with faculty and staff, followed by a meeting with Dr. Donald E. Ross and a “State of the University” message and a Parent’s Association meeting. At a Saturday afternoon luncheon, the students presented a fashion show and the home of Saturday evening’s dinner was the food, music and costumes of the “Fifties.” A sumptuous Sunday brunch brought the weekend to a close. See you next year!

Sunday Brunch
Oh what a night! The Talent Showcase held October 29, 1991 provided the funniest of antics by the baseball team and the sensational talents of faculty and students who could sing and play piano. A lot of enjoyable talent crossed the stage this night. Participants included: Paige Aberle, Richard Bota, Linda Brock, Cindy Cerqueira, Gordon Davis, Jess Dinesen, Jonathan Ditmyer, Mia Insulander, Tonya Jarrette, Blaine Kauffman, Melissa Peeples, Carmen Serbio, Shockwave, Tanisha Smith, Andy Sullivan, Steve Swartz and Jesus Toledo.

“We don’t know the exact words...”

Concentration is the key...

Shock waves through the room.

M.C. Rick Boleto call the next contestant.

“Everybody say ‘ho!’...”
During finals week last fall, faculty and staff volunteered their services to “treat” students to a late night breakfast. Not only did these faculty volunteers take over cooking responsibilities but they served students, washed dishes and cleaned tables. These finals breakfasts are offered as a way of supporting students during intensive study pre-test periods.

Who said they couldn’t cook?

Knights of the Roundtable

The Knights of the Roundtable are a select group of students who manage to maintain high grade point averages while offering hours of service to the University at major school functions. Additionally, they sponsor or host special activities for the enjoyment of the Lynn University student body.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association’s main goal is to represent the views and ideas of the students to the administration. The Executive Board represents the views of the students to the University’s administration. The Board of Senators represent their peer’s views to the Executive Board which form the basis for all actions taken by SGA. SGA is also designed to be active in the community representing Lynn University and its students in a positive manner. This year the SGA has been led by Debi Matthews-President, Chris Papandrea-Vice-President, and Oliver Schnusenberg-Secretary/Treasurer.
Our Student Ambassadors, under the direction of Mr. Steve King, work out of the Admission offices. During the fall of 1991, these Ambassadors entertained a group of seven prospective students from the Antilles School in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. Additionally, selected Ambassadors participated in college fairs at area high schools.

During the spring semester, these students made phone calls to accepted students and to those who inquired about Lynn University programs. The Student Ambassadors also hosted Massachusetts school counselors and educational specialists from Palm Beach and Broward Counties.

International Club

Members of the International Club have responsibilities which include serving as representatives of the international student body to the community and to distinguished visitors. International club members are also involved in hosting prospective students, and assisting with special on and off campus events.

The purpose and mission of the International Club is total commitment to internationalizing the Lynn University community by creating special interest groups and community events.

The International Club is a student-managed organization which strives to provide students with a sense of group consciousness and a common forum. This organization also offers the larger Lynn University community an increased awareness and appreciation of international students and international concerns.
Club Managers Association of America

The Club Managers Association of America assists students in gaining a better understanding of the private club management profession and helps them in their career directions. The student chapter at Lynn University consists of 18 students and is one of three schools in Florida with this affiliation.

Eta Sigma Delta

ETA SIGMA DELTA is the International Hospitality Management Society, an international honor society of baccalaureate degree granting institutions in the field of hospitality management fostering the advancement of teaching, learning, research, and practice for individual development through its various activities.

Advisor: Linsley T. DeVea, Dean
President: Lisa Gasparrro
Vice President: Paul Romanenko
Secretary: Joseph Sorantino

Hospitality Marketing Club

The mission of the Hospitality Marketing Club is to promote Hospitality Marketing Education Programs. It produces and disseminates information on hospitality marketing facilities and networking between students and faculty of the hospitality industry.
University Club

The University Club is a private dining club operated by students enrolled in specific hotel, restaurant and tourism courses.

International Travel and Tourism Club

The International Travel and Tourism Club opens its membership to all students with an interest in travel and tourism. The ITT Club sponsors various functions for its members for both research in travel and the promotion of tourism. The club is led by President Danielle Gray and Vice President Joseph A. Sorrantino. Assistant Professor Anthony P. Della Ventura serves as advisor.

Choir

The Lynn University Singers is a choir comprised of men and women from the University’s community. Anyone interested in singing is encouraged to participate. Having just started in the fall of 1991, this relatively small group has managed to perform for the University and the surrounding community several times. The current membership of the Lynn University Singers is as follows:

- Dr. Jennifer Braaten V.P. Academic Affairs
- Dr. Fred Cichocki Professor of Natural Sciences
- Pat Loughren Supervisor of Academic Resource Center
- Donna Sullivan Director of Mentoring Program

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who contributed their time and energy in helping to produce this 1992 Lynn University Yearbook.

In years to come, as we look back and remember the special people we knew...the friends we made...the experiences and projects we shared...this book will spark those memories.

In four years, I have seen more than just the name change from the College of Boca Raton to Lynn University. The University has expanded its educational programs as well as its physical property with the promise of even further expansion in both educational and sports programs.

My special gratitude for their gifts of inspiration and direction is to Dr. Jennifer Braaten and Dr. Marsha Glines.
