Welcome!

We are proud to bring you the eighth annual Gingerbread Holiday Concert.

Each year our audience grows as more and more parents and grandparents bring children to celebrate the holidays and share a musical afternoon with friends and family.

Maestro Albert-George Schram, musical director and conductor, leads this afternoon’s program performed by our superb Conservatory of Music. Your ticket purchase to today’s concert benefits one of the finest conservatories of music within a university environment. Without your support, our talented student-musicians, who hail from around the world and comprise one of the most internationally diverse student bodies in the country, would not be able to receive the university’s high level of music performance education.

Today’s concert is made possible through the leadership of Mary Anna Fowler and Pam Coffey. We are grateful to them, and all the Friends of the Conservatory of Music, for their dedication in making this event one of Boca Raton’s most beloved annual holiday traditions.

Thank you for celebrating the holidays with us and for your support of the Conservatory of Music. From our Lynn University family to yours, happy holidays!

The Friends of the Conservatory of Music

In 2003, music lovers in the Boca Raton community joined together to show their support for the growth and success of the Lynn University Conservatory of Music. Pledging to raise funds for immediate conservatory needs and scholarships for student-musicians, as well as to promote music events to the local community, they formed the Friends of the Conservatory of Music.

You are invited to support the Lynn University Conservatory of Music by making an annual gift through the Friends. For further information, please call 561-237-7745. We look forward to your participation in this worthy endeavor.
