Welcome!

It is my pleasure to welcome you to Lynn University’s seventh annual Gingerbread Holiday Concert. There is no better way to celebrate the holiday season than by sharing the gift of music with family and friends.

This afternoon’s program is performed by our superb Conservatory of Music students under the baton of Maestro Albert-George Schram, music director and conductor. By attending today’s concert, you are benefiting one of the finest conservatories of music within a university environment. Our talented young musicians hail from around the world and, along with their Lynn University classmates, comprise one of the most internationally diverse student bodies in the country.

Today’s concert is made possible through the leadership of Pat Thomas and Robin Muir. We are grateful to them, and all the Friends of the Conservatory of Music, for their dedication in making this event one of Boca Raton’s most beloved annual holiday traditions.

Thank you for celebrating the holidays with us and for your support of the Conservatory of Music. From our Lynn University family to yours, happy holidays!

The Friends of the Conservatory of Music

In 2003, music lovers in the Boca Raton community joined together to show their support for the growth and success of the Lynn University Conservatory of Music. Pledging to raise funds for immediate conservatory needs and scholarships for student-musicians, as well as to promote music events to the local community, they formed the Friends of the Conservatory of Music.

You are invited to support the Lynn University Conservatory of Music by making an annual gift through the Friends. For further information, please call 561-237-7745. We look forward to your participation in this worthy endeavor.

Through music, we create more harmonious communities.

Whether they make us laugh, cry or simply smile, the performing arts do much more than merely entertain. Bank of America is proud to sponsor the Lynn University Holiday Concert for giving so much back to the community.

About Lynn University

Lynn University is an independent, nonprofit university located in Boca Raton, Fla. It is home to five academic colleges: business, liberal education (formerly arts and sciences), international communication, hospitality and education, as well as a Conservatory of Music, School of Aeronautics and the Institute for Achievement and Learning. The university is dedicated to individualized learning, innovative approaches and an international focus. Lynn currently enrolls more than 2,200 students representing 40 U.S. states and 80 nations and competes in NCAA Division II.

The Lynn University Conservatory of Music

Serving as a center for the celebration of music, education and cultural life in South Florida, the Lynn University Conservatory of Music offers South Florida residents more than 70 performances each year by the conservatory’s students, alumni, faculty and acclaimed guest artists. The conservatory also serves the region’s aspiring musicians and the community-at-large through its music preparatory program.

About the Lynn University Philharmonia Orchestra

The Lynn University Philharmonia Orchestra sets the standard for conservatory level symphonic training. Now in its 18th season as a full symphony, the Philharmonia is an integral part of the education of the conservatory’s graduate and undergraduate music students. Each year, the Philharmonia presents a high quality concert series with a wide range of repertoire.

Albert-George Schram, music director and conductor

A native of the Netherlands, Albert-George Schram is resident conductor of the Columbus (Ohio) Symphony Orchestra and resident conductor of the Nashville Symphony. He also is a frequent guest conductor at the Charlotte (N.C.) Symphony Orchestra and Tucson Symphony Orchestra in Arizona. His foreign conducting engagements have included the KBS Symphony Orchestra, the Taegu Symphony Orchestra in Korea, and the Orchester der Allgemeinen Musikgesellschaft Luzern in Switzerland. Schram’s studies have been largely in the European tradition under the tutelage of Franco Ferrara, Rafael Kubelik, Abraham Kaplan and Neeme Jarvi. He has studied at the Conservatory of The Hague in the Netherlands, the University of Calgary and Victoria, and the University of Washington, where he received a Doctor of Musical Arts in conducting.
